MELAMINE doors in Classic White Matt and Hazel Strata Matt
LAMINATE bench top in Buller Stone Matt

Your kitchen cupboard doors and panels are often the largest and most prominent decorative surface in your kitchen. To give your kitchen distinctive character our MELAMINE range offers you an extensive choice on colour and a wide-range of decorative surface finish options; Texture, Matt, Ashgrain, Eurograin, Finegrain and Sheen.

Add interest to your kitchen by combining not only polytec's colour range palette, but the various MELAMINE surface finishes as well. The use of different finishes such as Eurograin and Sheen will create a kitchen that is captivating and eye catching.

Combining colours with an innovative design creates a beautiful and functional kitchen.

MELAMINE doors and panels are designed to compliment polytec's product range together with the new LAMINATE bench top colours. Available edging options now include a full range of 1mm edge tapes giving your doors a sleek and almost seamless finish. The durability of our 1mm edge tape ensures that your doors will endure the daily activities of a busy kitchen without compromising on style.

Polytec's aim is to provide the highest quality appearance in MELAMINE doors and panels while retaining the practicality needed in the kitchen environment. As well as offering design alternatives MELAMINE doors and panels are durable, hygienic and are made with easy maintenance materials. Most cleaning tasks are accomplished by simply wiping down with warm, soapy water.

Polytec's new Eurograin finish is a wide linear embossed finish and can be used in horizontal or vertical kitchen door applications. The Eurograin finish enhances a kitchen by enriching detail and structure. Kitchen accents are very popular in the Eurograin and Finegrain finishes. The ranges are available in 12 contemporary colours allowing designers to introduce modern colours with unique finishes.
